Transfer Recorded.

The following transfer of real estate was left for record at Clerk Hook's office Saturday:

Deed made November 10, 1893, by Joseph C. Brady and wife to George S. Simpson and wife, a deed of partition of the "Porter St-acre tract."

Lectures and Lessons.

Prof. Warman's lessons on physical and vocal exercises to the teachers and others will be given in the Clay school beginning Wednesday at 4:45 p. m.

The lectures will be given in the Fourth street M. E. church as advertised in amusement column.

Miners to Organize.

Next Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m., November 18, a meeting of miners will be held in the Trades Assembly hall to organize an independent union for this end of the State. Such a move has been on foot for a long time, and the consent of the national organization has at last been obtained.

Sons of Veterans.

The regular meeting of the Sons of Veterans will be held to-night. A great many comrades of the G. A. R. will be present, and will give short speeches, there will also be an interesting history of the late war read by members of the Sons. It is hoped they will have a full attendance. All the old members of the Sons and comrades of the G. A. R. are respectfully invited to be present.

Marriage Licenses.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to George W. Monroe, a native of Monroe county, Ohio, aged thirty-five, and Dora E. Smith, a native of Wetzel county, aged seventeen; also to John W. Engle, a native of Martin's Ferry, aged twenty-four, and Susan Strobell, a native of Steubenville, aged twenty-one; also to Robert Strobbe, a native of Wheeling, aged twenty-one, and Lydia V. Starkey, a native of Wheeling, aged seventeen.

For a Deserving Cause.

On Thursday, November 16, at George L. Durs's, a lunch, oysters and chicken salad will be served and there will be a sale of fancy and domestic articles, dolls, and home-made candies and cakes. The lunch will be served in courses and will be fifty cents. A program of music will be given during the afternoon. The admission is free, but the proceeds of the sales will be devoted to mission work among the poor of the city. The entertainment will be given by the Kings' Daughters of the First Presbyterian church.

Criminal Court.

In criminal court Saturday W. J. Bodley, charged with assault on Constable Dominick Morris, pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

John McNamara pleaded guilty of assault and battery and was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in jail.

Olive Smith, for prostitution, was fined $5 and costs.

Louis Bochella, for illegally selling liquor, confessed and was fined $20 and costs in each of the cases against him.

The Thanksgiving Game.

The Wheeling Athletic Club's foot ball eleven has received an acceptance of their recent challenge to the University of West Virginia team, and the game will take place at the State Fair grounds on the Island on Thanksgiving afternoon. The admission will be small and the proceeds will go to the City Hospital. The boys are practicing almost daily and the University eleven will have a hard struggle on hands when they meet "our boys."

Attractive Meetings.

To many young men the Sunday afternoon meeting at the Y. M. C. A. is a means of help and encouragement in living lives of staunch manliness and sterling worth. The meeting yesterday was attractive and fruitful. It was the beginning of the week of prayer services. The meeting was conducted by one of the young men, and several others made short, earnest talks. Then Rev. Dr. Riker gave an able address. The singing was hearty and the whole service was interesting and helpful.

Young men's meetings will be held at the association building each night, except Wednesday, this week at 8 o'clock. The programme is an attractive one and gives promise of good meetings. Rev. A. J. Irey will make the address to-night. An invitation is extended to every young man in the city.

The best medical authorities say the proper way to treat catarrh is to take a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Don't miss the opportunity of attending the Vocal and Instrumental Concert next Tuesday, November 14, at G. A. R. Hall. Admission 25c.

L. G. DILLON & CO.

SMITH'S ALE has been a household word in Wheeling for three-quarters of a century, and is better now than ever.

BARLOW-SCOFIELD.

A Former Wheeling Lady Married in New York State.

The wedding of Miss Carrie L. Scofield, daughter of the late Hon. O. G. Scofield, of Wheeling, and Mr. Walter A. Barlow, of New York, was celebrated on Wednesday morning, November 1, at 11:45 o'clock, at Mount Kisco, New York, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Luther Fowler.

The house was decorated with evergreen arches and garlands; masses of chrysanthemums were arranged in vases and upon the draperies. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, with white roses. Miss Ella Scofield was bridesmaid, in pale blue silk with pink roses.

Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, a life-long friend of the bride, formerly of Parkersburg, now of Newark, N. J., performed the ceremony. After the usual congratulations, the wedding luncheon was served to a score or so of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow took the 1:28 p. m. train for New York, and after a few days of travel, they will reside in Lacona, N. Y.

THE ICE PLANT

Project is a Go, all the stock Having Been Subscribed.

The project initiated by the butchers of the city lately to build a new ice plant has with the assistance of the other large consumers of ice in the city, including the saloonists and hotel people, come to a successful conclusion. During the week the subscription papers have been passed around and all the stock, $75,000 has been subscribed. The site of the new plant will, it is said, be the Butterfield property at the corner of Thirty-third and Water street, South Side. The parties at the head of the new enterprise are now in correspondence with ice machine manufacturers, two bids having already been received, and it is said that work will soon be started on the plant.

A Child Enjoys

the pleasant flavor, the gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

Geo. R. Taylor made a great purchase of fine Embroidered Linen Handkerchiefs of Arnold Constable & Co., last week, and places them on sale this morning. See advertisement in the INTELLIGENCER this morning.

A MINE OF MERCHANDISE—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

THE HUB

A Mine of Merchandise.

Does our trade grow? Why, we hear it, see it, feel it grow until it's like a great flood tide that sweeps all before it!

In a hundred ways we make your shopping agreeable. Most pleasing of all are the prices. Just how popular they have made us our daily throngs will show you. Is there or can there be any better proof needed? The cheaper we sell, the more we sell. This week's prices add a fresher to the flood. We fascinate you with Quality, charm you with the Patterns, bewilder you with Beautiful Novelties, gratify you with honest worth of goods, but we add the master stroke when we name the figures with which we win your patronage. The more we sell, the cheaper we sell. This week's prices add fuel to the flame.

DRAWING CARD—In our Clothing Department this week will be our $15 line of Men's Suits. No house in the State measures out quality so cheaply for your money's worth as we do. We've added some great values to this grade that'll make this week's shopping particularly spicy.

KNOTTED AND NOT—To-morrow morning we put on sale a lot of Neckwear that we have collected from the best makers in the country; all shapes, fresh patterns. There are 150 dozen in all. Talk about bargains, how? 50c for goods worth $1 00.

Good Heavy Gray Underwear at 12c. Extra heavy regular 50c Underwear, 50 dozen at 25c each. The greatest of all bargains are our Extra Heavy Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers at 75c. See our window display.

FIFTY DOZEN Gentlemen's Night Shirts, odds and ends, some of them a little mussed. None worth less than 75c, some $1 00 and $1 25. This week your choice at 50c.

SHORT PANTS SUITS—The fact is well established that we have the largest stock of Boys' and Children's Clothing in the city, and the best. Our colossal assortment of new and nobby styles and our unapproachable prices draw the parents of this and surrounding towns as a magnet attracts steel. We just placed upon our shelves and tables 1,000 Short Pants Suits and Overcoats from $1 75 to $5 00 that'll be a surprise to all who will call to see them.

WE CHALLENGE any house to produce a finer line, a better assortment, a more stylish or better tailored stock of Overcoats than we are showing this week at $5, $7, $10, 12 and $15. Meltons, Kerseys, Benavens, Cheviots, Friezes and Worsteds, stitched edges, strap and plain seams, from the most delicate colors to the sober, yet stylish black.

$2 98 buys choice this week from a beautiful Children's Stylish Kilt Suit. Cannot be matched elsewhere for less than $4 00 to $5 00.

If it Comes from THE HUB it's Right!

If it is Proper THE HUB Has It!

ONE HUNDRED DOZEN Lace Back and Wire Buckle Suspenders, most of them with Silk Ends; every day sellers at 50c. As many as you want this week at 25 cents.

CHILDREN'S OVERCOATS—Usters and Reefers will cut a big figure in this week's sales. Our line of Overcoats starts at $1 75. An elegant article at $2 75 and $3 50, and best of all our great All-Wool Triple Cape Coat at $5 50 are extra great values for the money.
